

Delaware RIVER Sojourn: June 15-22, 2024

River of Inspiration

2024 marks the Delaware River Sojourn's 29th journey down the Delaware River! This paddling & camping excursion gives people of all ages and experience levels a chance to have a truly "hands-on" river adventure. Join us for the entire trip or for the day(s) of your choice! Volunteer river cleanup happening on Friday, June 14, 2024.

What's Included

- Guided River Trip
- Kayak, Life Jacket & Paddle Rental
- Camping & Meals
- Livery Transport & Shuttling
- Educational Programming

Scan for more info!

2024 Stretches to be Paddled/Camping:

- Friday, June 14: Volunteer River Cleanup from Lackawaxen, Pa. to Barryville, N.Y. (camp opens at Zane Grey Museum, Lackawaxen, Pa.)
- Saturday, June 15: Zane Grey, Lackawaxen, Pa. to Kittatinny Pond Eddy, N.Y. (camp at Zane Grey)
- Sunday, June 16: Kittatinny Pond Eddy to West End Beach, Port Jervis, N.Y. (camp at Worthington State Forest, N.J.)
- Monday, June 17: Bushkill, Pa. to Worthington (camp at Worthington)
- Tuesday, June 18: Worthington to Ramsaysburg Historic Farmstead, N.J. (camp at Worthington)
- Wednesday, June 19: Martin's Creek Access, Pa. to Phillipsburg, N.J. (camp at Washington Crossing, Pa.)
- Thursday, June 20: Tinicum Park, Pa. to Lambertville, N.J. (camp at Washington Crossing)
- Friday, June 21: Fireman's Eddy, N.J. to Yardley, Pa. (camp at Washington Crossing, PA)
- Saturday, June 22: Bordentown Beach, N.J. to Pennsbury Manor, Pa. and back (no camping; Sojourn over)